Sample Ballot

General Election, Tuesday, November 8, 2022 Muskegon County, Michigan White River Township, Precinct 1

Partisan Section	Congressional	Regent of the University of	Governor of Wayne State
Straight Party Ticket	Representative in Congress	Michigan	University
Vote for not more than 1	2nd District	Vote for not more than 2	Vote for not more than 2
Democratic Party	Vote for not more than 1	Mike Behm	Danielle Atkinson
	Jerry Hilliard	Democrat	Democrat
Republican Party	Democrat	Kathy White	Marilyn Kelly
Libertarian Party	John Moolenaar	Democrat	Democrat
Libertarian Faity	Republican
U.S. Taxpayers Party		Lena Epstein	Christa Murphy
	Nathan Hewer	Republican	Republican
Working Class Party	Libertarian	Sevag Vartanian	Craig Wilsher
Green Party		Republican	Republican
Green rurty		Frielesses	Paras Isanona
Natural Law Party		Eric Larson Libertarian	Bruce Jaquays Libertarian Legislative
State	State Senator 32nd District	Joe Sanger	Marc Joseph
Governor and Lieutenant	Vote for not more than 1	U.S. Taxpayers	Sosnowski
Governor	Terry J. Sabo	Sherry A. Wells	U.S. Taxpayers
Vote for not more than 1	Democrat	Green	Susan Odgers
Gretchen Whitmer			Green
Garlin D. Gilchrist II  Democrat	Jon C. Bumstead	Kathleen Oakford Natural Law
	Republican
Tudor M. Dixon
Shane Hernandez
Republican	Representative in State
Mary Buzuma	Representative in State Legislature		County
Brian Ellison	102nd District	Trustee of Michigan State	County Commissioner
Libertarian	Vote for not more than 1	University	1st District
Donna Brandenburg	Brian Hosticka	Vote for not more than 2	Vote for not more than 1
Mellissa Carone	Democrat	Dennis Denno	Bruce E. Froelich  Democrat
U.S. Taxpayers	Curt VanderWall	Democrat	- Democrat
W. 1. H	Republican	Renee Knake	Kim Cyr
Kevin Hogan Destiny Clayton		Jefferson	Republican
Green		Democrat
		Mike Balow
Daryl M. Simpson	State Boards	Republican	T
Doug Dern Natural Law	Member of the State Board		Township of Education	Travis Menge	Trustee Term Ending 11/20/2024
	Vote for not more than 2	Republican	Vote for not more than 1
	Pamela Pugh Democrat	Claranna Gelineau	George W. Dufresne
Secretary of State		Libertarian	Democrat
Vote for not more than 1	Mitchell Robinson	Max Riekse
Jocelyn Benson	Democrat	Libertarian
Democrat	Tamara D. Carlone
Kristina Elaine	Republican	Robin Lea Laurain Green	Nonpartisan Section
Karamo	Linda Lee Tarver		Judicial
Republican	Republican		Justice of Supreme Court
Gregory Scott	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·		Vote for not more than 2
Stempfle	Donna Gundle-Krieg		Paul Hudson
Libertarian	Libertarian		Kerry Lee Morgan
Christine C. Schwartz	Bill Hall
U.S. Taxpayers	Libertarian		Brian Zahra  Justice of Supreme
	Ethan Hobson		Court
Larry James Hutchinson, Jr.	U.S. Taxpayers
Green			Richard Bernstein  Justice of Supreme
	Mary Anne Hering Working Class		Court
			Kyra Harris Bolden
Attorney General
Vote for not more than 1
Dana Nessel
Democrat
Matthew DePerno			Judge of Court of Appeals
Republican			3rd District
Joseph W. McHugh,			Incumbent Position
Jr.			Vote for not more than 1
Libertarian			James Robert
Gerald T. Van Sickle			Redford
U.S. Taxpayers			Judge of Court of Appeals

Sample Ballot

General Election, Tuesday, November 8, 2022 Muskegon County, Michigan White River Township, Precinct 1

Judiciai	Community College	A proposal to amond the state
Judge of Court of Appeals	Board of Trustees Member	A proposal to amend the state constitution to add provisions
3rd District	Muskegon Community	regarding elections
Incumbent Position	College	regarding elections
Term Ending 01/01/2025	Vote for not more than 2
Vote for not more than 1		This proposed constitutional amendment would: vote for not more than 1	Roy J. Portenga	amendment would.
Christopher Yates		Posognize fundamental right
Judge of Court of	Tom Linacre	- Recognize fundamental right
Appeals		to vote without harassing
	Diana Osborn	conduct;
		- Require military or overseas ballots be counted if postmarked by election day;
Judge of Court of Appeals		- Provide voter right to verify
3rd District		identity with photo ID or signed
Non-Incumbent Position		statement; - Provide voter right to single application to vote absentee in
Vote for not more than 1	Local School District	all elections:
Kathleen A. Feeney	Board Member	- Require state-funded absentee-ballot drop boxes, and
Raymond P. Voet	Montague Area Public	postage for absentee
	Schools	applications and ballots;
	Vote for not more than 3	- Provide that only election
	Karen Neubauer	officials may conduct post-election audits;
Judge of Circuit Court	Brent A. Raeth	- Require nine days of early in-14th Circuit		person voting;
Incumbent Position	Joel R. Smith	- Allow donations to fund elections, which must be
Vote for not more than 1	Jillian Sommerfield	disclosed;
Kenneth S. Hoopes	Jillan Sommerfield	- Require canvass boards certify
Judge of Circuit Court		election results based only on Amanda Unger	the official records of votes cast.
	Jennifer L. Wildfong	Should this proposal be adopted?
Judge of Circuit Court	Margaret E. Haynes	Yes
14th Circuit
Non-Incumbent Position		□ No
		I NO
Vote for not more than 1
Jason D. Kolkema		Proposal 22-3
		A proposal to amend the state
Jenny L. McNeill		constitution to establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make all Proposal Section
	i i oposai section	decisions about pregnancy decisions about pregnancy and abortion: allow state to Judge of Circuit Court	State	and abortion; allow state to 14th Circuit	State Proposal 22-1	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some
14th Circuit New Judgeship	State Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution
14th Circuit	State Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising
14th Circuit New Judgeship	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1 Matthew Kacel	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1 Matthew Kacel	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1 Matthew Kacel	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom,
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1 Matthew Kacel	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1 Matthew Kacel Gregory C. Pittman	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1 Matthew Kacel Gregory C. Pittman Judge of Probate Court	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1 Matthew Kacel Gregory C. Pittman  Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care,
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1 Matthew Kacel Gregory C. Pittman Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization,
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1  Matthew Kacel  Gregory C. Pittman  Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Brenda E. Sprader	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Require members of	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1 Matthew Kacel Gregory C. Pittman Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility;
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1  Matthew Kacel  Gregory C. Pittman  Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Brenda E. Sprader	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility;  - Allow state to regulate
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1  Matthew Kacel  Gregory C. Pittman  Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Brenda E. Sprader	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility;  - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1  Matthew Kacel  Gregory C. Pittman  Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Brenda E. Sprader	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources,	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility;  - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1  Matthew Kacel  Gregory C. Pittman  Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Brenda E. Sprader	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements,	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility;  - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1  Matthew Kacel  Gregory C. Pittman  Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Brenda E. Sprader	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility;  - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health;
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1  Matthew Kacel  Gregory C. Pittman  Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court  Judge of Probate Court	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility;  - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health;  - Forbid state discrimination in
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1  Matthew Kacel  Gregory C. Pittman  Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court  Judge of Probate Court  Judge of District Court  60th District	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility;  - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health;  - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right;
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1  Matthew Kacel  Gregory C. Pittman  Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court  Judge of Probate Court  Goth District Court  Incumbent Position	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations.	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility;  - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health;  - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1  Matthew Kacel  Gregory C. Pittman  Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court Judge of Probate Court  Other District Court Goth District Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations Require legislature implement	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility;  - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health;  - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right;
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1  Matthew Kacel  Gregory C. Pittman  Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court  Judge of Probate Court  Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Geoffrey T. Nolan	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations.  - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility;  - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health;  - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1  Matthew Kacel  Gregory C. Pittman  Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court Judge of Probate Court  Other District Court Goth District Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations.  - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements.	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility;  - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health;  - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment;
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1  Matthew Kacel  Gregory C. Pittman  Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court  Judge of Probate Court  Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Geoffrey T. Nolan	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations.  - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements.  - Replace current term limits for	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility;  - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health;  - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1  Matthew Kacel  Gregory C. Pittman  Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court  Judge of Probate Court  Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Geoffrey T. Nolan	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations.  - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements.  - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility;  - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health;  - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment;
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1  Matthew Kacel  Gregory C. Pittman  Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court  Judge of Probate Court  Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Geoffrey T. Nolan	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations.  - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements.  - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state senators with a 12-year total	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility;  - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health;  - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment;  - Invalidate state laws conflicting with this amendment.
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1  Matthew Kacel  Gregory C. Pittman  Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court  Judge of Probate Court  Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Geoffrey T. Nolan	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations.  - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements.  - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility;  - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health;  - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment;  - Invalidate state laws conflicting with this amendment.
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1  Matthew Kacel  Gregory C. Pittman  Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court  Judge of Probate Court  Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Geoffrey T. Nolan	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations.  - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements.  - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state senators with a 12-year total limit in any combination	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility;  - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health;  - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment;  - Invalidate state laws conflicting with this amendment.
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1  Matthew Kacel  Gregory C. Pittman  Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court  Judge of Probate Court  Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Geoffrey T. Nolan	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations.  - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements.  - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state senators with a 12-year total limit in any combination between house and senate,	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility;  - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health;  - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment;  - Invalidate state laws conflicting with this amendment.
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1  Matthew Kacel  Gregory C. Pittman  Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court  Judge of Probate Court  Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Geoffrey T. Nolan	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations.  - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements.  - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state senators with a 12-year total limit in any combination between house and senate, except a person elected to	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility;  - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health;  - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment;  - Invalidate state laws conflicting with this amendment.  Should this proposal be adopted?
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1  Matthew Kacel  Gregory C. Pittman  Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court  Judge of Probate Court  Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Geoffrey T. Nolan	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations.  - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements.  - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state senators with a 12-year total limit in any combination between house and senate, except a person elected to senate in 2022 may be elected	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility;  - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health;  - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment;  - Invalidate state laws conflicting with this amendment.  Should this proposal be adopted?  Yes
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1  Matthew Kacel  Gregory C. Pittman  Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court  Judge of Probate Court  Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Geoffrey T. Nolan	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations.  - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements.  - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state senators with a 12-year total limit in any combination between house and senate, except a person elected to senate in 2022 may be elected the number of times allowed	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility;  - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health;  - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment;  - Invalidate state laws conflicting with this amendment.  Should this proposal be adopted?
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1  Matthew Kacel  Gregory C. Pittman  Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court  Judge of Probate Court  Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Geoffrey T. Nolan	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations.  - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements.  - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state senators with a 12-year total limit in any combination between house and senate, except a person elected to senate in 2022 may be elected the number of times allowed when that person became a	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility;  - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health;  - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment;  - Invalidate state laws conflicting with this amendment.  Should this proposal be adopted?  Yes
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1  Matthew Kacel  Gregory C. Pittman  Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court  Judge of Probate Court  Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Geoffrey T. Nolan	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations.  - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements.  - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state senators with a 12-year total limit in any combination between house and senate, except a person elected to senate in 2022 may be elected the number of times allowed when that person became a	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility;  - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health;  - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment;  - Invalidate state laws conflicting with this amendment.  Should this proposal be adopted?  Yes
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1  Matthew Kacel  Gregory C. Pittman  Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court  Judge of Probate Court  Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Geoffrey T. Nolan	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations.  - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements.  - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state senators with a 12-year total limit in any combination between house and senate, except a person elected to senate in 2022 may be elected the number of times allowed when that person became a candidate.	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility;  - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health;  - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment;  - Invalidate state laws conflicting with this amendment.  Should this proposal be adopted?  Yes
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1  Matthew Kacel  Gregory C. Pittman  Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court  Judge of Probate Court  Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Geoffrey T. Nolan	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations.  - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements.  - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state senators with a 12-year total limit in any combination between house and senate, except a person elected to senate in 2022 may be elected the number of times allowed when that person became a candidate.  Should this proposal be	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility;  - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health;  - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment;  - Invalidate state laws conflicting with this amendment.  Should this proposal be adopted?  Yes
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1  Matthew Kacel  Gregory C. Pittman  Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court  Judge of Probate Court  Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Geoffrey T. Nolan	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations.  - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements.  - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state senators with a 12-year total limit in any combination between house and senate, except a person elected to senate in 2022 may be elected the number of times allowed when that person became a candidate.  Should this proposal be adopted?	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility;  - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health;  - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment;  - Invalidate state laws conflicting with this amendment.  Should this proposal be adopted?  Yes
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1  Matthew Kacel  Gregory C. Pittman  Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court  Judge of Probate Court  Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Geoffrey T. Nolan	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations.  - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements.  - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state senators with a 12-year total limit in any combination between house and senate, except a person elected to senate in 2022 may be elected the number of times allowed when that person became a candidate.  Should this proposal be adopted?  Yes	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility;  - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health;  - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment;  - Invalidate state laws conflicting with this amendment.  Should this proposal be adopted?  Yes
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1  Matthew Kacel  Gregory C. Pittman  Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court  Judge of Probate Court  Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1  Geoffrey T. Nolan	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations.  - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements.  - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state senators with a 12-year total limit in any combination between house and senate, except a person elected to senate in 2022 may be elected the number of times allowed when that person became a candidate.  Should this proposal be adopted?	and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right  This proposed constitutional amendment would:  - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility;  - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health;  - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment;  - Invalidate state laws conflicting with this amendment.  Should this proposal be adopted?  Yes