Sample Ballot

General Election, Tuesday, November 8, 2022 Muskegon County, Michigan City of Muskegon, Precinct 9

Partisan Section	Congressional	Regent of the University of	Governor of Wayne State
Straight Party Ticket	Representative in Congress	Michigan	University
Vote for not more than 1	3rd District	Vote for not more than 2	Vote for not more than 2
Democratic Party	Vote for not more than 1	Mike Behm Democrat	Danielle Atkinson Democrat
Republican Party	Hillary Scholten Democrat		-
		Kathy White Democrat	Marilyn Kelly Democrat
Libertarian Party	John Gibbs Republican	——————————————————————————————————————	——————————————————————————————————————
U.S. Taxpayers Party		Lena Epstein	Christa Murphy
	Jamie Lewis	Republican	Republican
Working Class Party	Libertarian	Sevag Vartanian	Craig Wilsher
Green Party	Louis Palus	Republican	Republican
	Working Class	Eric Larson	Bruce Jaquays
Natural Law Party		Libertarian	Libertarian
State		Joe Sanger	Marc Joseph
Governor and Lieutenant	Legislative	U.S. Taxpayers	Sosnowski
Governor	State Senator	Sharry A Walla	U.S. Taxpayers
Vote for not more than 1	32nd District	Sherry A. Wells Green	Susan Odgers
Gretchen Whitmer	Vote for not more than 1		Green
Garlin D. Gilchrist II Democrat	Terry J. Sabo Democrat	Kathleen Oakford Natural Law
	——————————————————————————————————————
Tudor M. Dixon	Jon C. Bumstead
Shane Hernandez Republican	Republican
			County
Mary Buzuma Brian Ellison			County Commissioner
Libertarian	Representative in State	Trustee of Michigan State	7th District
	Legislature	University Vote for not more than 2	Vote for not more than 1
Donna Brandenburg Mellissa Carone	87th District	Dennis Denno	Darrell L. Paige
U.S. Taxpayers	Vote for not more than 1	Democrat	Democrat
	Will Snyder Democrat	Renee Knake	Steve Null
Kevin Hogan Destiny Clayton		Jefferson	Republican
Green	Michael L. Haueisen Republican	Democrat	Andre L. Williams, Jr.
Darid M. Simpson		Mike Balow	No Party Affiliation
Daryl M. Simpson Doug Dern		Republican
Natural Law		Travis Menge
	State Boards	Republican	Nonpartisan Section
	Member of the State Board		Judicial
Country of State	of Education Vote for not more than 2	Claranna Gelineau Libertarian	Justice of Supreme Court
Secretary of State Vote for not more than 1	Pamela Pugh		Vote for not more than 2
Jocelyn Benson	Democrat	Max Riekse Libertarian	Kerry Lee Morgan
Democrat	Mitchell Robinson	Libertarian	Brian Zahra
Kristina Elaine	Democrat	Robin Lea Laurain	Justice of Supreme
Karamo		Green	Court
Republican	Tamara D. Carlone Republican		Richard Bernstein
Gregory Scott			Justice of Supreme
Stempfle	Linda Lee Tarver Republican		Court
Libertarian	Nepublicali		Kyra Harris Bolden
Christine C. Schwartz	Donna Gundle-Krieg		Devil 1
U.S. Taxpayers	Libertarian		Paul Hudson
Larry James	Bill Hall
Hutchinson, Jr.	Libertarian
Green	Ethan Hobson
	U.S. Taxpayers
	Mary Anne Hering		Judge of Court of Appeals
Attorney General	Working Class		3rd District
Vote for not more than 1			Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1
Dana Nessel	• • •		James Robert
Democrat			Redford
Matthew DePerno			Judge of Court of Appeals
Republican
Joseph W. McHugh,
Jr.
Libertarian
Gerald T. Van Sickle
U.S. Taxpayers

Sample Ballot

General Election, Tuesday, November 8, 2022 Muskegon County, Michigan City of Muskegon, Precinct 9

Judicial	Community College	Proposal 22-2
Judge of Court of Appeals	Board of Trustees Member	A proposal to amend the state
3rd District	Muskegon Community	constitution to add provisions regarding elections
Incumbent Position	College
Term Ending 01/01/2025	Vote for not more than 2	This proposed constitutional
Vote for not more than 1	Diana Osborn	amendment would:
Charistan ban Yataa	Diana Osborn
Christopher Yates		- Recognize fundamental right
Judge of Court of	Roy J. Portenga	to vote without harassing
Appeals	-	conduct;
	Tom Linacre	- Require military or overseas ballots be counted if postmarked by election day;
		- Provide voter right to verify
Judge of Court of Appeals		identity with photo ID or signed 3rd District
		statement;
Non-Incumbent Position		- Provide voter right to single Vote for not more than 1	Local School District	application to vote absentee in
Raymond P. Voet		all elections;
	Board Member	- Require state-funded
Kathleen A. Feeney	Muskegon Public Schools	absentee-ballot drop boxes, and
	Vote for not more than 2	postage for absentee
	Christine Hamel	applications and ballots;
		- Provide that only election
	Earl W. O'Brien	officials may conduct postludge of Circuit C	Lair vv. O Brieff	election audits;
Judge of Circuit Court		- Require nine days of early in-
14th Circuit	Morgan Witmer	person voting;
Incumbent Position	l	- Allow donations to fund
Vote for not more than 1		elections, which must be disclosed;
Kenneth S. Hoopes		- Require canvass boards certify
Judge of Circuit Court		election results based only on the official records of votes cast.
	Board Member	Should this proposal be
	Muskegon Public Schools	adopted?
Judge of Circuit Court	Term Ending 12/31/2024	Yes
14th Circuit	Vote for not more than 1	L les
Non-Incumbent Position	vote for not more than 1	□ No
	Kwame Kamau	No
Vote for not more than 1	James
Jenny L. McNeill		Proposal 22-3
		A proposal to amend the state
Jason D. Kolkema		constitution to establish new sason si itomenia		individual right to
	Proposal Section	reproductive freedom,
	r Probosal Section
	. reposur securen	including right to make all
	State	including right to make all
	State	decisions about pregnancy
Judge of Circuit Court	State Proposal 22-1	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to Judge of Circuit Court	State Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some
14th Circuit	State Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution
14th Circuit New Judgeship	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution
14th Circuit New Judgeship	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1 Gregory C. Pittman	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1 Gregory C. Pittman	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would:
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1 Gregory C. Pittman	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1 Gregory C. Pittman	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom,
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1 Gregory C. Pittman Matthew Kacel	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1 Gregory C. Pittman	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would:	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1 Gregory C. Pittman Matthew Kacel	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1 Gregory C. Pittman Matthew Kacel Judge of Probate Court	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care,
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1 Gregory C. Pittman Matthew Kacel Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization,
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1 Gregory C. Pittman Matthew Kacel Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Brenda E. Sprader	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1 Gregory C. Pittman Matthew Kacel Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization,
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1 Gregory C. Pittman Matthew Kacel Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Brenda E. Sprader	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility;
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1 Gregory C. Pittman Matthew Kacel Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Brenda E. Sprader	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility; - Allow state to regulate
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1 Gregory C. Pittman Matthew Kacel Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Brenda E. Sprader	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources,	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility; - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1 Gregory C. Pittman Matthew Kacel Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements,	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility; - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1 Gregory C. Pittman Matthew Kacel Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court Judge of Probate Court	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility; - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1 Gregory C. Pittman Matthew Kacel Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court Judge of Probate Court Judge of District Court 60th District	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility; - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health;
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1 Gregory C. Pittman Matthew Kacel Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court Judge of Probate Court	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility; - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health; - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1 Gregory C. Pittman Matthew Kacel Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court Judge of Probate Court Judge of District Court 60th District	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations.	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility; - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health; - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a
Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations. - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements.	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility; - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health; - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for
Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Geoffrey T. Nolan	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations. - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements. - Replace current term limits for	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility; - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health; - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by
Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations. - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements. - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility; - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health; - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment;
Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Geoffrey T. Nolan	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations. - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements. - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state senators with a 12-year total	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility; - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health; - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment; - Invalidate state laws conflicting
Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Geoffrey T. Nolan	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations. - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements. - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state senators with a 12-year total limit in any combination	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility; - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health; - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment;
Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Geoffrey T. Nolan	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations. - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements. - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state senators with a 12-year total limit in any combination between house and senate,	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility; - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health; - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment; - Invalidate state laws conflicting with this amendment.
Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Geoffrey T. Nolan	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations. - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements. - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state senators with a 12-year total limit in any combination between house and senate, except a person elected to	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility; - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health; - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment; - Invalidate state laws conflicting with this amendment.
Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Geoffrey T. Nolan	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations. - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements. - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state senators with a 12-year total limit in any combination between house and senate, except a person elected to senate in 2022 may be elected	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility; - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health; - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment; - Invalidate state laws conflicting with this amendment.
Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Geoffrey T. Nolan	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations. - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements. - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state senators with a 12-year total limit in any combination between house and senate, except a person elected to senate in 2022 may be elected the number of times allowed	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility; - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health; - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment; - Invalidate state laws conflicting with this amendment.
Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Geoffrey T. Nolan	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations. - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements. - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state senators with a 12-year total limit in any combination between house and senate, except a person elected to senate in 2022 may be elected the number of times allowed when that person became a	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility; - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health; - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment; - Invalidate state laws conflicting with this amendment. Should this proposal be adopted?
Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations. - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements. - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state senators with a 12-year total limit in any combination between house and senate, except a person elected to senate in 2022 may be elected the number of times allowed	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility; - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health; - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment; - Invalidate state laws conflicting with this amendment. Should this proposal be adopted? Yes
Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations. - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements. - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state senators with a 12-year total limit in any combination between house and senate, except a person elected to senate in 2022 may be elected the number of times allowed when that person became a candidate.	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility; - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health; - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment; - Invalidate state laws conflicting with this amendment. Should this proposal be adopted?
Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations. - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements. - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state senators with a 12-year total limit in any combination between house and senate, except a person elected to senate in 2022 may be elected the number of times allowed when that person became a candidate. Should this proposal be	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility; - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health; - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment; - Invalidate state laws conflicting with this amendment. Should this proposal be adopted? Yes
Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Geoffrey T. Nolan	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations. - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements. - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state senators with a 12-year total limit in any combination between house and senate, except a person elected to senate in 2022 may be elected the number of times allowed when that person became a candidate.	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility; - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health; - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment; - Invalidate state laws conflicting with this amendment. Should this proposal be adopted? Yes
Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations. - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements. - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state senators with a 12-year total limit in any combination between house and senate, except a person elected to senate in 2022 may be elected the number of times allowed when that person became a candidate. Should this proposal be	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility; - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health; - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment; - Invalidate state laws conflicting with this amendment. Should this proposal be adopted? Yes
Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations. - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements. - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state senators with a 12-year total limit in any combination between house and senate, except a person elected to senate in 2022 may be elected the number of times allowed when that person became a candidate. Should this proposal be adopted?	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility; - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health; - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment; - Invalidate state laws conflicting with this amendment. Should this proposal be adopted? Yes
Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations. - Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements. - Replace current term limits for state representatives and state senators with a 12-year total limit in any combination between house and senate, except a person elected to senate in 2022 may be elected the number of times allowed when that person became a candidate. Should this proposal be adopted?	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility; - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health; - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment; - Invalidate state laws conflicting with this amendment. Should this proposal be adopted? Yes
14th Circuit New Judgeship Vote for not more than 1 Gregory C. Pittman Matthew Kacel Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Brenda E. Sprader Judge of Probate Court Judge of Probate Court Incumbent Position Vote for not more than 1 Geoffrey T. Nolan	Proposal 22-1 A proposal to amend the state constitution to require annual public financial disclosure reports by legislators and other state officers and change state legislator term limit to 12 total years in legislature This proposed constitutional amendment would: Require members of legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, and attorney general file annual public financial disclosure reports after 2023, including assets, liabilities, income sources, future employment agreements, gifts, travel reimbursements, and positions held in organizations except religious, social, and political organizations. Require legislature implement but not limit or restrict reporting requirements. Replace current term limits for state representatives and state senators with a 12-year total limit in any combination between house and senate, except a person elected to senate in 2022 may be elected the number of times allowed when that person became a candidate. Should this proposal be adopted? Yes	decisions about pregnancy and abortion; allow state to regulate abortion in some cases; and forbid prosecution of individuals exercising established right This proposed constitutional amendment would: - Establish new individual right to reproductive freedom, including right to make and carry out all decisions about pregnancy, such as prenatal care, childbirth, postpartum care, contraception, sterilization, abortion, miscarriage management, and infertility; - Allow state to regulate abortion after fetal viability, but not prohibit if medically needed to protect a patient's life or physical or mental health; - Forbid state discrimination in enforcement of this right; prohibit prosecution of an individual, or a person helping a pregnant individual, for exercising rights established by this amendment; - Invalidate state laws conflicting with this amendment. Should this proposal be adopted? Yes